Universitas Negeri Jakarta, Indonesia, and Kolej Islam Darul Ridzuan, Malaysia agree to enter into a formal exchange agreement based on the foundation of mutual trust for the mutual benefit and development of the two institutions and the promotion of understanding.

5. The two institutions agree to jointly develop some or all of the following activities:
- g. Exchanging teaching staffs, researchers and students
 - h. Promoting scholarship programs
 - i. Conducting collaborative activities on educational, teaching, research, journal publication, and community service
 - j. Organizing joint international conferences and workshops, and cultural activities
 - k. Exchanging personnel to join study tours, conferences, and trainings
 - l. Exchange academic and management information needed in research and education such as books, papers, instructional media, curriculum and scientific documents
6. The implementation of each exchange based on this agreement shall be separately negotiated and determined by both institutions and efforts shall be made by both sides to find financial sources for carrying out the exchange programs.
7. Nothing shall diminish the full autonomy of either institution nor will any constraints be imposed by either upon the other in carrying out the agreement.
8. This Memorandum shall commence on the date of its signing and shall remain in effect for a period of 3 (three) years subject to annual review, at which both parties shall by mutual agreements determine the terms and conditions of any extensions of duration of the Memorandum.
